

AGN. NO. _____

MOTION BY SUPERVISOR MICHAEL D. ANTONOVICH

June 19, 2007

“NATIONAL DAY OF READINESS AND VIGILANCE”

Terror attacks against the United States on September 11, 2001 marked the beginning of the war to end global terrorism.

Under the guidance of “March Against Terror USA,” and the FIT-SWAT program (Fully Intact and Trained-Stand Watch Against Terrorism), we will observe the “National Day of Readiness and Vigilance” throughout the County of Los Angeles on September 11th of each year, in order to encourage greater readiness and vigilance against terrorism, preserve the memory of the victims killed on September 11, 2001, other victims of terror, and honor those who are actively combating global terrorism.

I, THEREFORE, MOVE that the Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles does hereby proclaim the “National Day of Readiness and Vigilance” an annual day of rededication to year-round readiness and vigilance against terrorism, a memorial to the victims killed on September 11, 2001, other victims of terror, and a tribute to those who are actively combating global terrorism.
